

IOSH managing safely course

At Marsh Commercial, we know that the best way to achieve health and safety training success is to get people fully involved, having fun and learning by doing. Working with the Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH), we are able to offer the managing safely course.

Who is managing safely for?

This 3 day course is aimed at managers and supervisors with the responsibility for the day to day management of people and processes within the workplace.

What are the benefits to your business?

- Peace of mind from training that is designed and quality controlled by the chartered body for health and safety professionals, IOSH.
- The flexibility that allows us to deliver the programme to suit your business.
- Efficient and effective learning for health, safety and environmental basics, all covered under one programme.

What is covered?

- An introduction to managing safely
- Assessing and controlling risks
- Understanding individual responsibilities
- Identifying hazards
- Investigating accidents and incidents
- Measuring performance
- Final assessment and qualification

What results can you expect?

- Greater productivity from fewer hours lost due to sickness and accidents in the workplace.
- Improved company wide safety awareness culture and appreciation of safety measures.
- Active staff involvement to improve the workplace.
